Index

Agencies: local case work, 47–51; national case work, 47; specialized educative and consultant agencies, 46.

Aspects of Community Organization in Relation to Public Policy. E. C. Lindeman, 83–7.

Attainable Standards for State Departments of Public Health. Howard W. Odum, 137–43.

Austria, 19.

Breckenridge, S. P. Summary of the Present State Systems for the Organization and Demonstration of Public Welfare, 93–103.

Butler, Amos W. Indiana Plan of Supervision, The, 122–4.

Bureau: Mental Health: state care, 107; occupational therapy, 109; Restoration: correctional system, 109; prisons, 109; commonwealth committee, 112; creation of, 112; function of, 112; Children's, 30, 105.

Capen, Samuel P. Public Welfare and Public Education. Historical Analogies and Present Correlations, 26–30.

Carstens, C. C. National Social Agencies Rendering Services to the Home and Family, 53–7.

Child: Children's Bureau, 30, 105; juvenile delinquency, 107; Children's Code, 107; dependent, 120; family care, 120; formation of National Child Health Council, 53–7; other agencies, 57.

Church: avoidance of duplication, 64; coöperation of welfare departments and, 67; coöperation, 64–9; functions of, 65; growth of, 68; institutional work of, 69; opportunities of and in, 70; present orientation of, 64; public influence of, 66; public worship, 65; religious education of, 66; social center, 68; Sunday School training, 66.

Civic voluntary organizations, 71–2; assets of, 73; characteristics of, 72; dangers involved in, 73; municipal research work, 74; work of general civic organizations, 73; work of specialized, 72.

Community organization; definition of, 83; economic determinism, 84; effect of industry, 84; means toward progress, 85; vital factor, 86.

Coöperation of Public and Private Welfare Agencies, The. Joseph C. Logan, 88–92.

County welfare work: affiliation of Red Cross, 134; A. W. McAllister, 130; county problems, 133; defeat of bill, 131; evolution of, 135; first inception, 130; L. A. Halbert, 130; local community difficulties, 134; manual of procedure, 132; North Carolina Plan, 130; present status, 132.

Conant, Richard K. Massachusetts Department of Public Welfare, The, 119–21.

Cunliff, Nelson. Department of Public Welfare of St. Louis, Missouri, 160–1.

Department of Public Welfare of St. Louis, Missouri. Nelson Cunliff, 160–1.

Department of Public Welfare in the City of New York. Rebecca B. Rankin, 151–5.

Department of Public Welfare in Pennsylvania, The. Clement W. Hunt, 104–12.

Department of Public Welfare in Representative Cities. James A. Dickey, 149–50.

Department Public Welfare: New York: growth of, 151; methods, 153; present, 152; responsibility of dependents with, 151; Pennsylvania: basis for state hospital, 105; functioning of, 104.

Dickey, James A. Department of Public Welfare in Representative Cities, 149–50.

Development of County Public Welfare Work in Missouri, The. A. F. Kuhlman, 130–6.

Education: change in concept, 28; compulsory, 27; contrast, 26; relation of government to, 29; secondary, 27; socializing influence of, 28; trained personnel, 27.

Field of the Church in Social Work and Public Welfare, The. Rev. Worth M. Tippy, 64–70.

Fosdick, Raymond B. Public Welfare in Relation to International Problems, 17–20.

Gillin, J. L. Public Welfare Movement and Democracy, The, 13–16.

Government: dangers to, 3; democratic, 2; guarantee to, 4.

Graves, Henry S. Public Welfare in Relation to the Conservation of Natural Resources, 7–12.

Gulick, Luther. Voluntary Organizations that Promote Better Government and Citizenship, 71–5.

Hagerty, J. E. Universities and Training for Public Leadership and Social Work, The, 162–4.

Hart, Joseph K. Public Welfare and Our Democratic Institutions, 31–5.

Health: centers, 38; expenditure of money, 40; governmental task, 37; preventive medicine, 36; politics, 40; personal hygiene, 40; public interest in, 40; scientific knowledge, 37; special training, 38; voluntary agencies' part in, 37; rural, 41.

Hunt, Clement W. Department of Public Welfare in Pennsylvania, The, 104–12.

INDIANA PLAN OF SUPERVISION, THE. Amos W. Butler, 122–4.
Internationalism, 18.

JOHNSON, MRS. KATE BURR. North Carolina Plan of Public Welfare, The, 125–9.

KELSO, ROBERT W. Transition from Charities and Correction to Public Welfare, The, 21–5.
KING, EDITH SHATTO. Scope and Nature of Positions in the Field of Non-Governmental Social Agencies, The, 172–6.
KUHLMAN, A. F. Development of County Public Welfare Work in Missouri, The, 130–6.

League of Nations, 18, 91; effectiveness of health section of, 18; intellectual coöperation of, 19; Woodrow Wilson, 91.
LINDEMAN, E. C. Aspects of Community Organization in Relation to Public Policy, 83–7.
LOGAN, JOSEPH C. Coöperation of Public and Private Welfare Agencies, The, 88–92.
LOS ANGELES COUNTY DEPARTMENT OF CHARITIES, THE. Norman R. Martin, 156–9.
LOVEJOY, OWEN R. Relation of Voluntary Agencies to Public Welfare, The, 42–5.

MARQUETTE, BLEECKER. Positions of Social Work in the Fields of Public Education and Public Health, 177–81.
MARTIN, NORMAN R. Los Angeles County Department of Charities, The, 156–9.
MASSACHUSETTS DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WELFARE, THE. Richard K. Conant, 119–21.
Maternity Act, 30.
MCLEAN, FRANCIS H. National and Social Agencies Rendering Services to the Home and Family, 46–52.

NATIONAL AND LOCAL SOCIAL AGENCIES RENDERING SERVICES TO THE HOME AND FAMILY. (1) Family Agencies. Francis H. McLean, 46–52.
National Service of U. S. government, 29; defensive, 29; creative, 29.
NATIONAL SOCIAL AGENCIES RENDERING SERVICES TO THE HOME AND FAMILY. (2) Child Welfare Organizations. C. C. Carstens, 53–7.
NEW YORK STATE SYSTEM AND ITS PROBLEM OF REORGANIZATION, THE. Richard W. Wallace, 113–8.
New York state system: amendments to constitution, 116; effort, public and private, 113; duplication of supervision, 116; supervisory agencies, 113; State Board of Charities, 115; state responsibility for insane and mental defectives, 117.
NEWER IDEALS OF PUBLIC WELFARE. Howard W. Odum, 1–6.
NORTH CAROLINA PLAN OF PUBLIC WELFARE, THE. Mrs. Kate Burr Johnson, 125–9.
NUDD, HOWARD W. Organized Citizen Effort in Behalf of Public Education, 58–63.

ODUM, HOWARD W. Attainable Standards for State Departments of Public Welfare, 137–8; Newer Ideals of Public Welfare, 1–6; Positions for Trained Social Workers in the Field of Public Welfare, 182–4.
ORGANIZATION AND PROMOTION OF INDUSTRIAL WELFARE THROUGH VOLUNTARY EFFORTS, THE. Arthur J. Todd, 76–82.
ORGANIZED CITIZEN EFFORT IN BEHALF OF PUBLIC EDUCATION. Howard W. Nudd, 58–63.
ORGANIZATION PROBLEM OF PUBLIC WELFARE DEPARTMENTS, AN. Gertrude Vaile, 144–7.

POSITIONS FOR TRAINED SOCIAL WORKERS IN THE FIELD OF PUBLIC WELFARE. Howard W. Odum, 182–4.
POSITIONS OF SOCIAL WORK IN THE FIELDS OF PUBLIC EDUCATION AND HEALTH. Bleecker Marquette, 177–81.
Private agencies: efforts of, 43; future goal of, 45; reason for, 42; right of continuance, 44.
PROFESSIONAL TRAINING FOR PUBLIC WELFARE. Jesse Frederick Steiner, 165–71.
Public Education Associations: citizen organizations, 53; foundations, 61; general organizations, 60; New York Association, 62; Parent Teacher Association, 61; specific organizations, 58; value of citizen coöperation, 63; visiting teachers, 59.
PUBLIC WELFARE AND PUBLIC HEALTH. George E. Vincent, 36–41.
PUBLIC WELFARE AND OUR DEMOCRATIC INSTITUTIONS. Joseph K. Hart, 31–5.
PUBLIC WELFARE IN RELATION TO THE CONSERVATION OF NATURAL RESOURCES. Henry S. Graves, 7–12.
PUBLIC WELFARE IN RELATION TO INTERNATIONAL PROBLEMS. Raymond B. Fosdick, 17–20.
PUBLIC WELFARE MOVEMENT AND DEMOCRACY, THE. J. L. Gillin, 13–16.
PUBLIC WELFARE AND PUBLIC EDUCATION. HISTORICAL ANALOGIES AND PRESENT CORRELATIONS. Samuel P. Capen, 26–30.
Public welfare: Adam Smith, 32; apprenticeship system versus technical training, 166; broadening of curriculum, 169; common activities, 140; coöperation, 34; deficiencies, 138; definition of, 1; desired form, 142; efforts of, 14; elements included in training, 162; establishment university, undergraduate schools, 168; field work, 168; general plan, 4, 5; humanitarian program, 35; illustrations, 15; inadequacy of former training, 167; industrial, 32; Massachusetts: (divisions of, 119; Hospital

School, 120; private charities, 121; state infirmary, 120; training school, 121; minimum essentials, 142); Missouri: (future work of, 160; health, 160; medical, 160; recreation, 160; municipal growth, 182; national field work of, 177; necessity for program development, 138; negative considerations, 141; new concept of, 2); North Carolina Plan: (attitude of taxpayer, 126; Chatauqua, 129; county units, 128; county-wide playground 129; danger of centralization of power, 128; need for trained workers, 129; preventive measures, 127; President Chase, 129; results of unsatisfactory record-keeping system, 127; shattering of traditions, 127; subdivisions of work, 125; summer institutes, 129; typical cases, 126); object of, 1; old conception of, 31; omissions, 138; other agencies, 178; peculiarities in administration, 144; political appointees, 15; private effort, 180; program, 33; problems, 44; responsibility, 35; rural work, 179; salaries, 180; schools, 166; state department, 179; technical training, 165; types of municipal departments of, 149; variations of method, 138; work of federal government, 177.

RANKIN, REBECCA B. Department of Public Welfare in the City of New York, 151–5.

RELATION OF VOLUNTARY AGENCIES TO PUBLIC WELFARE, THE. Owen R. Lovejoy, 42–5.

Resources: agriculture, 11; coal, 11; consequences of waste of, 9; conservation of, 7, 11; destruction, 9; higher development of, 12; influence of, 7; opportunity for development of, 7; policy of development, 8; reaction of destruction on, 10; restoration, 10; waste of, 8.

SCOPE AND NATURE OF POSITIONS IN THE FIELD OF NON-GOVERNMENTAL SOCIAL AGENCIES. Edith Shatto King, 172–6.

STEINER, JESSE FREDERICK. Professional Training for Public Welfare, 165–71.

State boards: alterations, 23; first, 21; formation of new departments in, 24; improvement in, 24; treatment of poor, 23; wide scope of, 25.

SUMMARY OF THE PRESENT STATE SYSTEMS FOR THE ORGANIZATION AND DEMONSTRATION OF PUBLIC WELFARE. S. P. Breckenridge, 93–103.

TIPPY, WORTH M. Field of the Church in Social Work and Public Welfare, The, 64–70.

TODD, ARTHUR J. Organization and Promotion of Industrial Welfare through Voluntary Efforts, The, 76–92.

TRANSITION FROM CHARITIES AND CORRECTION TO PUBLIC WELFARE, THE. Robert W. Kelso, 21–5.

UNIVERSITIES AND TRAINING FOR PUBLIC LEADERSHIP AND SOCIAL WORK, THE. J. E. Hagerty, 162–4.

Universities: case method, 164; facilities for social work training in, 161; field work, 164; lack of proper facilities, 163; present tendencies, 163.

VAILE, GERTRUDE. Organization Problems of Public Welfare Departments, 144–7.

VINCENT, GEORGE E. Public Welfare and Public Health, 36–41.

VOLUNTARY ORGANIZATIONS THAT PROMOTE BETTER GOVERNMENT AND CITIZENSHIP. Luther Gulick, 71–5.

Voluntary agencies: Cannon, Mrs. Cornelia, 89; coöperation between, 90, 91; division of work, 88; Franklin, Benjamin, 89; Lippmann, Walter, 92; publicity, 91; relationship of, 88.

Voluntary community agents: dangers of separation and diversity of aim, 174; financial remuneration, 176; form of control of, 173; necessity for coöperation of, 175; opportunities for advancement, 173; professional character, 174; types of positions, 172.

WALLACE, RICHARD W. New York State System and Its Problem of Reorganization, 113–8.

Welfare work: attitude of labor toward, 79; employer's viewpoints, 78, 79; evidences of effectiveness, 78; first attempts, 76; justification, 80; labor trouble and, 81; old-world influence on, 76; specific work, 77; wages, effect on, 81.